Thank you for serving on Thanksgiving Day!

Thank you - OC Low-Rider Association, Hand to Hands, Kumar's 7-Eleven, OC Rescue Mission, Spin OC, Principe De Paz, Growth University and many others for donating your time and needed items for the residents of the Courtyard.

Between all the groups, 89 volunteers either served food or distributed donations to the Courtyard residents on Thanksgiving Day. Collectively, 356 hours of volunteer time were provided. Residents were showered with a surplus of food and community compassion!

ITEMS NEEDED THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

A small gift can go a long way!

START WITH THE BAG

When a homeless neighbor becomes a resident of the Courtyard a welcome bag is gifted to them. Content includes hygiene kit with socks, blanket, small pillow and a lunch pack.

NEW T-SHIRTS OF ALL SIZES

We currently are in need of new t-shirts of all sizes to include in our welcome bags. Sizes suggested are Mediums, Larges, and X-Larges.

NEW UNDERWEAR & SOCKS

Clients have a variety of clothing needs. Residents are always in need of new underwear and socks.

SUPPORT MEAL PROVIDERS

We currently are in need of the following paper goods and items: paper plates, plastic forks, 8-ounce coffee cups and coffee grounds.

JOIN THE CHRISTMAS COMMITTEE

We are looking for 6-8 volunteers to help coordinate Christmas Eve and Christmas Day at the Courtyard. An orientation meeting will take place on Tuesday, December 12th at 7 PM.

Must be available on Christmas Eve and/or Christmas Day to join the committee*
